Message from the Principal

During this Lenten season, we continue to focus on repentance. Repentance is like breathing. We don't have to be reminded to breathe, but sometimes we need coaching in "how" to breathe. It is not something we do once, but it's a rhythm that sustains life. So it is with repentance. Many times we grow weary of confessing the same sin again and again. Proverbs 28:13 says, "Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy." Confessing is not something we complete and move on from. We exhale our sins again and again, and we inhale the mercy God gives us again and again. Repentance is not God telling us to try harder, but an invitation to stop holding our breath.
