A note from the Principal

Do you or your children struggle with self-worth? It seems to be a big topic of concern these days. The answer to this struggle is to know what you have and who you are in Christ. Paul writes in Philemon 6: "I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ." What are some things you can do to build confidence and self-worth? Don't speak negatively about yourself. Avoid comparing yourself to others but instead conform to the qualities of Christ. Let God determine your worth as He sees you through the righteousness of Christ. Keep your flaws in perspective- appreciate when you make progress to improve. Discover the true source of confidence: God! Do your best and leave the rest to Him. - Principal Joy Reitsma
