A note from the Principal

In this season of Easter, Jesus appeared to his disciples and said, “You are witnesses of these things.” Luke 24:48 This was in reference to His death, His resurrection, and His victory over sin. They had seen it with their own eyes and were now commissioned to go and tell others what they had seen and heard. Jesus calls us as Christians to be a witness too. We hesitate, not sure about saying the wrong things or fearing how we will be perceived. Jesus also said, “and behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you.” Luke 24:49. This was the promise of the Holy Spirit who will help give us the voice and power to proclaim the message of Christ. So testify what you have seen God do in your life because somewhere someone is still sitting in the dark, waiting for a witness who will speak the truth, that sets them free. - Principal Joy Reitsma
